BOGUS BEAUTY: The New Power of American Women (New Power of Women) Richard Pawlowski
What is driving the violence in America and why are American women becoming the breadwinners? What causes more men to commit suicide than women and what makes a man want to act like a woman to another man? Why is America becoming more perverted in so many ways? Tough to answer questions for sure. But, there are indeed interesting answers - however, many are taboo in American media.

Now, after 20 years of dedicated research and hundreds of personal in-depth interviews, BOGUS BEAUTY & The New Power of American Women has those answers - and much more,

Bogus Beauty covers the global-competitive advantages of American women, the increasing American male vulnerability to women, and the typically unknown psychological and economic affects of this expanding feminine power. This work is also about our deepest internal beliefs about women and the way all Americans have been influenced by past female magnetism and prerogatives.

This new and powerful book is meant to be highly controversial because it covers very personal subjects which are unsaid in American media. At the very core of the adverse affects on American men and the dramatic increase in the financial and political power of American women - is bogus beauty. What is bogus beauty you ask?

Well, to start with, if you're an American, you see it everywhere on billboards, TV, the Internet, and magazines and it's highly toxic and backed with tons of cash. It has a trillion dollar grip on the American psyche and it's on almost every shelf, in every American home. It's also "expected" in American business but it's truly dangerous to your health. It's mass incessant-narcissism and unfortunately, it is now also highly coveted and considered as normal and natural by American children. Facts show that American women, who are living in or near poverty, will even sacrifice better food and health for their children in order to buy lipstick and cosmetics with which to compete with other women and attract men. Bogus beauty is the mass illusion and mass delusion of beauty. It has also become a ubiquitous competitive "tool" for women and in a very real way, bogus beauty has become an overwhelming addiction, an insidious chemical killer and destroyer of lives in American families. It also fosters violence but is rarely considered a cause of it.

American women gain great financial and psychological power from bogus beauty and it's now being recognized in global economic circles as "erotic capital." Dozens of new "Alpha Bitch" and "Stiletto" feminist networks are being organized around bogus beauty to "dismantle" male-dominated businesses. These media savvy feminist networks are also legally coaching and "mentoring" legions of high school and college-age women to "lean in" and bring about "the end of men." Bogus beauty is at the very center of this growing, global power.

Why is this important to you? For one thing, American women are set to inherit over $70 trillion (that's a "T") in the next 25 years and this stark economic fact will change the very nature of all businesses as well as the typical American family and your current belief system.

In different words, there has never been a time more important to comprehend the growing, global power of American women. American women are unique around the world and it is a time of great opportunity for American women but, it is also a time to really worry for American men and children. You personally, should learn why this is important to everyone around you, including your employees if you have any. BOGUS BEAUTY & The New Power of American Women will entertain while elucidating, and will also help anyone adjust.
