As passive men, we suffer from a multi-layer disconnect from being the unique men God designed us to be. Each layer consists of defense mechanisms that protect us from those who would discover the fakes we believe we are. The passive man hides in his secret closet of fear; he is driven by an anger that contradicts every word he uses to avoid confrontation - an anger that pushes him to fight and a fear that chases him into hiding. So we find ourselves on a journey that began when we accepted Christ. Passivity leads to a reverse pride; not good enough, not smart enough, not righteous enough, and a man God can't or won't use. But He has kept the most important promise of all. "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not gaze about, for I am your God; I will make you strong; yea, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness." Isaiah 41:10.
