You broke up with your narcissist or psychopath: your spouse, mate, or intimate partner. You mourn the lopsided "relationship", you contemplate giving him a second chance, you want closure. You know you are a survivor of abuse, a victim - but you crave his presence. Could you be a codependent? An inverted narcissist? Are you traumatized? Do you suffer from Complex Post-traumatic Stress Disorder (C-PTSD)? How should you go about divorcing him when you are still so bonded with and attached to him?
