The Other Side of Fatherhood: A Father's Day Anthology Richard Crasta

This Father's Day Anthology is about modern fatherhood, of fathers separated from the children they love ... trying to express their love, pain, anger, and sometimes, their helplessness. Vulnerable, yet powerful: an alternative anthology for Father's Day, speaking to the truth and the lives of millions of modern fathers. It includes essays and stories about fathers and their children, and with two powerful letters the author wrote to his sons (and one about his son), this book tries to present "The Other Side of Fatherhood"--the kind of fatherhood you do not read about in Hallmark Cards or Hallmark Card type books.
