Life's short: eat cookies! I have tasted every single one of the book's recipes and can personally vouch for their wow factor, says Janet Keeler, Food & Travel Editor of the St. Petersburg Times. And perhaps more importantly, says the award-winning writer, I am not alone in my assessment. My very willing husband and confirmed chocoholic son - not to mention eager fellow journalists and friends - never once turned down the opportunity to try the latest concoction and state their opinions. Keeler, an admitted cookie addict, created, gathered, and tested more than 5,000 recipes from her own recipe box and those suggested by her loyal readers. She finally chose the 150 best recipes for this collection. The result? A cookie cookbook of the most scrumptious cookies ever published! Each cookie is pictured in full color in a lay-flat format, and Keeler includes plenty of hints and techniques for no-fail baking. Easy-to-follow instructions cover all skill levels, from first-time to seasoned baker. Ingredients are readily available in supermarkets, and there is no need for exotic equipment. This cookbook has cookies for every occasion and every holiday, promises Janet. I have noted the 'freezworthiness' of each recipe so you can bake a batch ahead and have a cookielicious day at a moment's notice!
