For “it girl” Serena and longtime friend and occasional rival, Blair, prep school in New York’s privileged Upper East Side is a game of class warfare – not grade nine vs. grade ten, but the cool against the uncool; the fabulously well-dressed vs. the eww-what-are-you-wearing? The girls think nothing of their condescending attitude and stinging barbs. But then a classmate’s suicide is posted by the school’s omniscient blogger, Gossip Girl, and the queens of Constance Billard are forced to reflect upon the destructive nature of their sometimes barbarous reign.

XOXO is a compelling, thoughtful account of a pressing social issue that is sure to resonate with fans of the popular Gossip Girl TV and book series.
