The only thing Ted Logan loves more than baseball is his big brother, Gary. But while Gary is a baseball superstar, Ted still hasn't ever been quite good enough to make his first team. After his brother leaves home for college, Ted is on the verge of giving up his dream of playing ball forever. Then he stumbles upon a baseball card with a powerful message. With help from a new best friend, what he does next changes his life, and in the process teaches Gary a lesson he'll never forget.
