“Nothing ever gets better until people like me come along to show the way. I’m this generation’s General Patton. Seventy-five years ago that great general had to show the whole United States Army how to use the tank in modern warfare. I’m doing the same with the drone.” General Ramos is targeted for assassination. The admired Cuban exile leader is getting too old. He is holding up a vital American operation set for Cuba. A successful hit with a Hellfire missile followed by a big funeral in Little Havana will open the way. Naval Officer Jack Kane is sent to Miami to warn Ramos. Events become more complicated when a paid assassin arrives from Caracas. What is her role in all this? Kane quickly finds himself in way over his head.
