Are you an English teacher, with numerous demands on your time and energies, or an English Literature pupil wishing to develop, reinforce and consolidate your comprehension of, and insight into, a set text? If you have answered 'yes' then this e-book will prove a valuable teaching, study and revision aid!

Using mind maps, it:

- provides an analytical breakdown of each scene in the play
- illuminates key themes, such as fertility, usurpation and revenge
- explores significant quotations
- highlights Shakespeare's use of language and imagery thereby it encourages full exploration and engagement with the text, thus

- generating new perceptions
- helping to organise thinking
- improving understanding
- encouraging further critical investigation

In addition, The Tempest thru Mind Maps contains a number of practical tasks pertaining to the play's characters, themes, use of language and key quotations so as to encourage further critical deliberation. There is also a section identifying significant quotations.

To add even further to this e-book's appeal, it is:

- cheap
- easy to download
- copyright free (and therefore printable)
