Questo e-book è il primo di una collana dedicata allo studio biografico e stilistico dei grandi compositori, affidata alla casa editrice digitale BitBiblos con la quale ho recentemente avviato la mia prima collaborazione editoriale. Considerato il mio vissuto personale ed i miei gusti stilistici, non potevo che aprire la collana parlando della vita e delle opere di Johann Sebastian Bach, che considero più di ogni altro il Maestro di ogni compositore classico e moderno, a partire dal 1700 fino ai giorni nostri. Non potevo inoltre non parlare delle mie esperienze dirette "allo strumento" (pianoforte e chitarra classica in primis), dando qualche assaggio delle difficoltà esecutive ed interpretative con cui l'interprete moderno si deve confrontare nel momento in cui si avvicina alle partiture del grande Maestro. Ed infine non potevo tacere il riferimento ad alcuni grandi interpreti bachiani, primo tra tutti il sommo pianista e compositore canadese Glenn Gould, universalmente considerato uno dei massimi esteti del XX secolo. Il tutto calato nella ricostruzione storica e nella ricerca biografica del vissuto del grande Johann Sebastian Bach, effettuata tramite lo studio comparato dei più rilevanti contributi musicologici a lui dedicati.
