The heroes have been gathered. The oaths have been made. The journey to the darkest place in all the nine realms has begun! Now, Arden, the exiled prince who wears the face and body of a demonic Hobb, leads his pack of motley heroes on a quest to find a cure for the curse that ravages the land and the people of Jotunheim, body, mind and spirit. With the church and state set against them, the Order of the Vale search through the twisted populace for a prophet who can unravel the Bastard Prophecy and show them the way to the well in which Odin Skyfather once dropped his eye. As Arden struggles to control the atavistic urges sweeping over him, will even the help of an embittered holy man and a transvestite Satyr be enough against an entire countryside of folks who have failed that struggle and are becoming monstrous themselves? The Bastard Prophecy continues the dark fantasy epic that begins with Test of a Prince and concludes with Lord of an Endless Realm. Will you heed the prophecy?
