Two people, one city, different times; connected by a memoir. Can love exist in a city destined for decades of misery?

Adnan leads a weary existence as a bookshop owner in modern-day, war-torn Baghdad, where bombings, corruption and assault are everyday occurrences and the struggle to survive has suffocated the joy out of life for most. But when he begins to clean out his bookshop of forty years to leave his city in search of somewhere safer, he comes across the story of Ali, the Gardener of Baghdad, Adnan rediscovers through a memoir handwritten by the gardener decades ago that beauty, love and hope can still exist, even in the darkest corners of the world.

Anthony Koch:

As a scholar exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Gardener of Baghdad can make you sense more interested to read.
