Can a witch and a wolf find happiness?

Damian is restless, has been since his alpha's found their mate. While out on patrol he hears a strange voice on the wind, it calls to him. Following the voice to the clearing where his alpha swan keeps her altar, he discovers his mate. His wolf is desperate to put his mark on her, but Charlie has a past that is about to catch up to the both of them.

Charlie is desperate to make it home before the winter solstice. It's been a bad year, and all she wants is to see her family. She packs everything she owns into her car, and sets out for her cousin Bethany's house. Turning to the Mother for guidance, she meets Damian, her mate, and learns that life isn't something you can run away from. When her past and her future collides, Charlie finds more than she bargained for beneath the winter moon.

Warning: This novella contains lots of steamy sex between a hot alpha wolf and his curvy witch. It is intended for readers over the age of 18
