Disappearing starts with MISINFORMATION, DISINFORMATION AND REFORMATION but you have to understand pretext and social engineering, which it is lying and manipulating to obtain information for various reasons. A skip tracer, information broker or a stalker will pretext phone companies, banks and other organizations to get information about you, so you need to prepare and defend. Misinformation is locating information that is known about you and deviating. Disinformation is creating bogus trails for the stalker, predator or private investigator to find and follow. Reformation is getting from point A to point B successfully by leaving no clues. Some people pick up and split, however, they forget all of the information they have left behind. You will be more successful in your disappearance if you follow these three tools to the best of your ability. If you are serious about your privacy, disappearing or falling of the grid How to Disappear can help.
