The Baxters - She Found Us: Book One L. Ann Marie

Mitch had a rough beginning. Experiencing foster care, emancipation, pregnancy and an abusive husband before she's 18 doesn't deter her from her one goal, finishing college. With her above average intelligence she has virtually no experience in socializing with her peers. A stalking ex-husband forces her to seek help from an unlikely source. While afraid of large men Mitch puts her fear aside to get to her daughter and get out of the city.

Jamie is mesmerized by her voice, her beauty and her courage. He can't let her walk away without figuring out why he feels losing sight of her will alter his life.

Kevin is stopped dead. He can't tear his gaze away from her. She is in his bed with his cousin and he can't move. He is riveted but can't understand what is causing his head to spin.

When Mitch lets go of convention and jumps into a relationship with two alpha males a sense of right and connection she's never experienced wraps her and her daughter Jess in a life she never knew existed.

Afraid of scaring her into more flashbacks they calmly and quietly introduce her to the Dom/Sub lifestyle. This ensures her safety and their need being satisfied. When they almost lose her to her psychotic ex's vow to kill her before anyone else can claim her they take steps to keep her and Jess in their lives forever.
