SUMMARY

The Stained Glass Window is the story of a young couple in their twenties, who have been living together for three years. Mary is keen to have a baby and willing to try anything that will help her conceive and she even considers sleeping with another man, who has successfully fathered five happy children. Graham is a mild young man who loves Mary and agrees to move home once again, but when her religious feelings send her into the arms of another man, he has a hard decision to make...
