“You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that anyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart.” – Matthew 5:27-28 When Jesus spoke these words he moved the offense from the bedroom to the heart. Jesus reminded us that with sexual sin it is not just the result that matters, but even more so the intentions. And if sin is going to be curbed it has to begin with a curbing of the intentions; a changing of the heart. Sexual temptations are all around us. There is no avoiding it. When sex is not just in the city, but in the country, the prairie, the desert, and everywhere in between, how are Christians suppose to navigate their way to a faithful testimony of God’s grace and purity? In this booklet, Pastor Tony looks at the words of Jesus Christ from Matthew 5:27-30 and seeks to help us navigate the minefield of sexual temptation in this world. Though this treatment is brief, yet like our Lord’s words it is careful to attack the issue right where the battle is won or loss – in the heart.
