RELIGION / MUSIC / POETRY. Twenty-two words of the Bible inspired the author to write 20 poems about each element of the Fruit of the Spirit and put them to music. All the hymn tunes were originally written over 90 years ago and still have wide appeal. For example, one poem Omnipotent Savior is sung to the tune of Away in the Manger. The poetry can stand alone to be read for meditation and prayer while the musical scores, blended with the same poetic words, can uplift individuals, choirs, and congregations to sing about the depth and breadth of Galatians 5:22-23. A refreshing approach for help and inspiration with spiritual transformation for believers and non-believers alike.
