In a time when being cutthroat was a way of life, Summer Taylor is forced to move from her hometown to a city where the money flowed effortlessly- just like the blood that came with it. With just her, her two sons by her side, and two kilos cocaine, Summer Taylor begins a deadly mission that will change life as they know it. Her rise to the top was undeniable, and it earned her a seat at the table with the cartel and the mafia- but the price that came with it was greater than she could imagine. With nothing left on her plate but cocaine residue and revenge, she's left with two options. Run and hide or get money by any means necessary... even if it's covered in her son's blood.
