Pieced Together (Broken Pieces Series) (Volume 2) Kelly Moore

Kyren couldn't get over killing Brogan's father, even though he did it to save her. The demons of his own past took control, and he left her when she needed him most. In the aftermath of their agonizing breakup, Kyren and Brogan sought healing on very different paths. She moved to a remote island in Maine and started a new life, while he isolated himself on his yacht, and almost drowned in booze and guilt. After three long years, they're each in a good place. Neither can forget the intense, passionate love they shared, but they're both sure it's over for good. Too much time has passed. There's too much old hurt. Fate intervenes, however, and places Kyren on Brogan's doorstep. For both of them, it's like they were never apart. His body craves hers, and she immediately longs to submit to his magnetism. Brogan is terrified of giving in to their passion. Can he be the man she needs him to be? Will he break her heart again? She's not the same person she was back then. She's stronger, and she has a big secret. Has he learned from his own demons? And most importantly, when she comes clean, will he be able to handle the truth?
