Mason Yates couldn't help that he had an insatiable desire for married men but that was always his biggest weakness. When the real estate mogul spotted a young, handsome and very much down on his luck man at a bar, he took notice and kept an eye on him as he was stunningly attractive. He knew that with the right amount of money as a bit of an enticement, that there was nothing that he couldn't convince anyone to do. Mason was a gentleman at heart and never looked at what he did as condescending. He was competitive in nature and it was the hunt that kept him going.

Will he be able to convince a married father of two to join him in a romantic escapade or has he finally met his match?
