Tales From Dramaland: The Fairy Godmother and The White Cat Anne McVitie

Engaging, delightful, fairy stories for young children. Tales from Dramaland, meet the residents of this wonderful land, the Wee People, and follow their adventures. Tales from Dramaland, classic tales where all the stories begin, Once upon a time... The Land of the Stone Mountains and the Fairy Forest, the Princess' Palace and the Prince's Castle, the Vastly Blue Sea and the Spring River. Follow the tales of the Jester with his jingle jangle boots, the Fairy Godmother and her beautiful White Cat, the Baker and her fabulous cakes, the Dark Lord who turns night into day and plays with the secret, Cat People, the Fisherman who longs to see the Mer People, the dazzling Leading Lady who only wants to act and entertain and many, many more wonderful characters.

In this tale meet the kindly Fairy Godmother who is starting to get forgetful, she is forgetting who deserves a wish and who doesn't and she keeps losing her magic wand. Find out how the biggest, the fluffiest, white, Persian cat comes to her aid.

Ideal for reading to children at bedtime by a parent, or for children themselves to read. Perfect for children from 3 - 8 years.
