Bell was true to her namesake.

She was beautiful, and when she was in over her head, Simon knew what he'd have to do. He was going to protect her. Even if it meant his brother's wrath. Jake never did like it when people made a fool of him, and that's exactly what Bell did when working one of the charity functions they held. Jake was out for revenge, and the only thing that stood between Bell and destruction was Simon. Her own personal dragon, and her own savior.

She never thought she'd fall in love with someone that seemed so far out of her league, but with Jake, she was swept off her feet all at once.
