This book is has been in one collection since the show first toured (hardcover with dustjacket). It's a gorgeous volume as described on the Metropolitan Museum of Art site - "This landmark publication, which accompanies a major exhibition, celebrates the immense artistic riches created in Mexico through its 3,000-year history. More than 350 sculptures, paintings, and objects from museums and private collections in Mexico, the United States, and Europe illustrate this unsurpassed survey of Mexican culture. Each work is illustrated in full color and is accompanied by a text that will be of interest to both the general reader and the scholar. The substantial foreword, written by Octavio Paz, the distinguished Mexican author, presents a most lively and acute analysis of the national character, art, and history. Each section-Pre-Columbian Art, Viceregal Art, Nineteenth-Century Art, and Twentieth-Century Art-is introduced by an essay written by an eminent scholar." More information and the contents may be viewed on the Museum's website at http://www.metmuseum.org/research/metpublications/Mexico_Splendors_of_Thirty_Centuries
