An Illustrated Guide to the Common Birds of Cape Cod Peter Trull

Over 140 beautifully rendered color illustrations of common Cape Cod birds with species accounts that include locations where they may be found by birders. The informative text provides helpful advice on the best bird watching techniques and six field trips focusing on different environments and the species that populate them. These field trip locations include "Woodland in Spring and Summer," "Waterfowl of Freshwater Lakes and Ponds," "Common Birds of the Salt Marsh," "Shorebirds of the Tidal Flats in Late Summer, Fall and Winter Migrants on Salt Water," and "Oceanic Birds." While addressing the needs of beginning bird watchers, adults and children alike, there is useful information on locations and logistics that any bird lover may use. This simple-to-use field guide is an invaluable resource for birding on Cape Cod.
