Apocalyptic Empire: Eradication (Volume 2) Christopher Blake

Things were about to get interesting for the Hatchery survivors. When Vintago and his men find an army base surrounded by infected, they have to come up with a plan to rescue the people trapped inside. Vintago comes up with an unorthodox plan on how to rescue the survivors, and if everything goes according to plan their group will more than double in size. That's only if everything goes according to plan... Upon exploring neighboring towns, the Hatchery survivors find some disturbing discoveries. In a race against time they must come up with a plan to deal with this new shocking discovery. Soon the world is spiraling out of control for Vintago and his community. They are forced through a gauntlet of circumstances and where they will end up, is uncertain. The disease that started the Outbreak was spreading, and the only solution, would be complete Eradication. "There is no cure for this disease, the only solution is eradication."
