Hang On To It Girl: The Wily Woman's Guide to Wills Paul Brennan

Women are either richer and living longer or with the wrong choice of husband poorer and left to pick up the pieces. Living longer gives women more time to marry even more disastrously than they did the first, second and in some cases third time.

The security of having money can lead to pressure from those who wish to share it.

Many of the problems are predictable after all, it is your family. But more importantly sometimes avoidable.

Unlike many other things in life, the more money that you have the more miserable the “Succession Planning” process can be. Your lawyer can be a “ray of sunshine” in the whole process, hard to believe I know.
