Is this my country 'tis of thee sweet land of diversity? Creighton Berry

In a stunning and candid memoir, Creighton Berry invites you to join his lifetime search for cultural identity in the changing multicultural landscape in the U.S. and other parts of the world during the past eighty years. A nationally-recognized artist, see how over 100 pieces of Berry's work in mixed media, watercolor, acrylic, and oil reflects his experiences growing up at a certain time and a certain place into a certain tribe in 20th century America. Explore how Berry weaves his own artwork and unwavering religious faith with comments from noted writers, artists, philosophers, statesmen, and theologians to examine the impact and future of diversity in the U.S. in this new century.
