The Samaritan Woman Testifies is a book based on the concept of the woman at the well of Jacob in the Biblical history, Book of John, chapter 4. She is a woman scorned by most others but Jesus goes out of His way to minister to her needs while she attempts to get water later in the noon day, avoiding all others. Jesus made a special detour to see this woman and help her ascertain the living water of salvation and grace. It was a miraculous meeting. This project was divinely inspired and 12 courageous women came forward to testify to their own personal journey to the well where they met Jesus Christ. He said, "Who do you say that I AM?" The author, Susan J. Perry is happily retired and lives in Edgewater, Florida with her sweet husband John R. Perry. Together they have four grown children; three girls and one boy and four grandchildren so far; three boys and one girl. Their children are spread out from New York to Texas to Alabama and traveling to see them is such wonderful fun! So life is good because they share the love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit challenging God's purpose for them as a married couple of 8 years now with so much more to do.
