Mr. Peaslee looked more complacent than ever. It was Saturday noon, and Solomon had just returned from his usual morning sojourn "up-street." He had taken off his coat, and was washing his face at the sink, while his wife was "dishing up" the midday meal. There was salt codfish, soaked fresh, and stewed in milk—"picked up," as the phrase goes; there were baked potatoes and a thin, pale-looking pie. Mrs. Peaslee did not believe in pampering the flesh, and she did believe in saving every possible cent. "Well," said Mr. Peaslee, as they sat down to this feast, "I guess I've got news for ye." His wife gazed at him with interest. "Are ye drawed?" she asked. "Got the notice from Whitcomb right in my pocket. Grand juror. September term. 'T ain't more'n a week off." The staccato utterance was caused by the big mouthfuls of codfish and potato which, between phrases, Mr. Peaslee conveyed to his mouth. It was plain to see that he was greatly pleased with his new dignity. "What do they give ye for it?" asked his wife. Solomon should accept no office which did not bring profit.

Kenneth Cunningham:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Calico Cat can make you sense more interested to read.
