The Chieftain's Daughter (The Afótama Legacy Book 2) Holley Trent

It has been nearly a thousand years since the Afótama have had a chieftain, and the old Viking gods have decided it's time to return some power to the tribe's men. Harvey Lang and Oliver Gilisson have barely settled into their roles as queen's consorts when new powers awaken along with undeniable hungers.

Queen Contessa now has two chieftains and twice as many problems. She's not only in the midst of using her powerful psychic abilities to track long-missing clanspeople, but now has to contend with mercenaries targeting the Afótama's New Mexican desert home and a megalomaniac fairy queen wants to take Ollie's sons. Further, her two men seem to have forged an incendiary connection that has left her feeling cold.

If Harvey, Ollie, and Tess are to be the leaders who finally return magic to their people, they must first come to terms with having power of their own. And to balance their strengths, they may have to become a true ménage instead of a sometime threesome.

This book contains an MMF ménage scenario and scenes of male/male intimacy.

Also available in The Afótama Legacy:
