Faith McAllister has the perfect life in Belfast, Northern Ireland or so it seems. She has the well to do parents, the handsome boyfriend and the non-stop church life, what could go wrong?

A tragedy in New York means Faith meets Addison Preston, a beautiful and intriguing lesbian who makes her question her dearly held beliefs.

Many stones will be thrown at Faith as she battles between the roads of God and Gay. Will those stones be coming from glass houses?

When Faith finds herself at a cross roads her decision could shape the rest of her life.
