Adolf Hitler: The bigot of the Jews Andrew Klein

Adolf Hitler: The bigot of the Jews Often depicted in modern literature as the savage lunatic who plunged the world into the last World War, Adolf Hitler's name has been on the tongues of historians, psychologists, economists and laymen for ages. Many have painted a picture of this man using lies, conjectures and other forms of manipulation to give most of the western world the impression that Hitler was the epitome of Lucifer himself. A few others have hailed him as a godsend and a man who was worthy of praise. Very few authors have attempted to portray a wholesome picture of Adolf Hitler, so that readers can come to conclusions by themselves. In this book, we will look at Hitler's story from all possible angles. We will step into the world of a man who was very passionate about his beliefs; a man who rose to great power during his time and a man whose actions started one of the worst wars this world has ever seen. In this book, we will analyze the captivating life of Adolf Hitler himself and I will leave you with the final call to pass judgment or praise. Join me in this journey to unravel the hidden truths about Adolf Hitler's life. Grab your copy now and secure your seat in the journey to the past!
