THIS IS... MY DIARY... OF A BLACKMAN Have you ever wondered what BLACK men think? Have you ever thought about what goes through the minds of the most oppressed, segregated, despised, exploited, emasculated yet still feared race of men on the planet ? What does being a BLACK MAN in America truly mean ? How do they TRULY feel about themselves, the BLACK WOMAN and other races of women? The BLACK FAMILY? Other BLACK MEN? If the black man could say ANYTHING they wanted about AMERIKKKA and the white race, what would they say? How would they say it ? Well, that's exactly what "Diary Of A Black Man" is about. Before the "National Poetry Slam" and HBO's Def Poetry, there was TONY B. CONSCIOUS. From selling individual poems on the streets of Atlanta and Los Angeles to Writing Poetry books and starting the FIRST poetry clothing line, TONY B. CONSCIOUS is the personification of not only Poetry, but Hip Hop and the "inner-city Black Male". "Diary Of A Black Man" is written in remembrance of Langston Hughes, James Baldwin, Claude McKay, Paul Robeson, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Malcom X and Marcus Garvey. It is a MUST HAVE and MUST READ for anybody who wants to truly experience the Joy, Pain, Love Hate, Anger, Rage and Militancy of the BLACK MAN in America.
