Not-a-Tame Lion: Unveil Narnia Through the Eyes of Lucy, Peter, and other Characters Created by C. S. Lewis Bruce L. Edwards

A study of the spiritual world of Narnia as seen through the main characters' interactions with Aslan the Lion. An introductory chapter focuses on the spiritual world of C. S. Lewis and the origins of Narnia. The other chapters focus on character traits of key characters in the Narnia series—goodness, valor, poise under pressure, grace, humility, stubbornness, viciousness, and the vindication of goodness. Includes study questions for group study.

In brief:

- Introduces new readers to the world of Narnia and the main characters found in the series.
- Provides spiritual insights about the series by focusing on the lives of the main characters in the series.
- A short section of small-group study questions in the back of the book.
