“Love is so overrated. At least that’s what I thought before I met Chuck. I had never experienced love before, I had never experienced pure joy, and I had never experienced unadulterated tragedy. That was, until I met Chuck.” Harley was never one to express her feelings. Growing up in her family wasn’t exactly peach n’ cream. After her father left her and her mother, Harley was thrust into the parental roll in order to survive, including fending off her mother’s abusive boyfriends. After coming home from celebrating Skye and Wyatt’s engagement, Harley was once again forced to defend herself against an unwanted guest. Feeling the repercussions of her hasty actions, she wonders if she has caused more damage then good. In light of her current situation, Harley flees her home in search of a new life, leaving her past in the dust. But where will she go? The exuberant, newly engaged couple, Skye and Wyatt? The tension-ridden household of Carrington and Colton? Or perhaps the very willing, sexy and persistent Chuck? Don’t miss the epic conclusion to The Southern Gentleman Series.
