Many people believe they are Christians because they attend church or because they live in what is considered a Christian nation. But what constitutes a true Christian? Is it the good things we do? Is it because we don't do the things that are considered the "big sins"? Is it because we give to charities and are generous with others? Who gets to make the determination? Do we determine our Christianity by worldly standards, or do we search out God's Word for what He has to say on this topic? Do we even consult God regarding such a grave issue as our eternal destination? Many people ingest false doctrine taught by false teachers. Scriptures tells us that false teachers will increase in the end times. Multitudes of books are written every year that come under the catagory of "spiritual or religious," so how can we identify a mixture of humanism and new age spirituality?

If you want to discern if you're a true Christian according to the Bible -- then explore what God says in His Word on eternal security. You can have assurance of salvation! God promises it to those who seek Him diligently!
