Ready for Hillary: The Official, Inside Story of the Campaign before the Campaign Seth Bringman
Ready for Hillary, the organization that paved the way for Hillary Clinton's presidential candidacy, took the political world by storm, expanding from only two volunteers and a P.O. Box to a national grassroots movement with four million supporters. Bringman, the first staff member of the Ready for Hillary super PAC, delivers the only first-hand account into these efforts to prepare for the 2016 campaign. The highly anticipated book, released amid Hillary Clinton's historic bid for the White House, provides an exclusive look into the early players supporting Hillary Clinton, as well as insight into modern political strategies and behind-the-scenes details to satisfy every political observer. Bringman documents adversities and triumphs in the rough-and-tumble world of Washington politics while sharing light-hearted tales from his travels to 45 states meeting everyday Hillary supporters and big political players while driving the "Hillary Bus." Ready for Hillary: The Official, Inside Story of the Campaign before the Campaign is a must-read for every Hillary Clinton supporter and every follower of politics and elections.
