Separate bedrooms?

When Trent de Havilland waltzed into Alethea's life, it was a relief to have some adult male company for a change. Her mother, sister and three young nieces were driving her mad and she was desperate to leave home. Then Trent suggested she move in with him....

No way! She hardly knew him and any man who made her feel like he did was bound to be trouble! But it was part of the deal if Trent was to help her sister out, and soon Alethea had no option—she couldn't let her family down. Yet Alethea knew she couldn't live with Trent for long—or else their temporary houseshare would become a permanent bedshare!
