Bloodlines (Chrystal Bahl's Twisted Tails) (Volume 1) L. M. Reed

Brittany "Brit" Macintosh has problems...and not just the normal everyday teenager problems, but huge earth-shattering problems. Sure, some of the problems appear normal on the surface...a best friend, a bunch of hot guys, and calculus...but that's where normal flies out the window and weird comes in the front door. Brit's best friend, Deana "Dee" Saunders, is under a psychiatrist's care for 'seeing things', the hottest hottie on campus actually believes Dee saw those things, and calculus...well, okay, calculus is just calculus. Then, to top it all off, Brit's body develops a mind of its own and starts acting funny...especially around the smokin' hot college guy she can't seem to get out of her head. Things really get off-the-wall strange when Brit's friend Dee finds something on the internet and plans a secret road trip, determined to prove to the world she's not nuts. What Brit and her friends don't realize is that there are two groups of people extremely interested in Dee's every move and at least one of those groups is willing to do whatever it takes to get what they want regardless of the collateral damage.
