Chameleon: A Novel Jackie McConnell

The paranormal oddity begins; an interracial tryst amongst two teens unleashes the discovery of an extraordinary encounter that began thousands of years prior. A discovery that caught the attention of the United States Department of Defense. Millions of tax dollars funded a research into the phenomena. Mixed with human DNA; the intelligence of the creature sought to survive at all cost. The amalgamation of its host caused compassion to break through amongst other emotions. Chameleon is a story based on bonding, trust, and love. This unique story is written with life-like characters that are woven into an unforgettable tale.
