The Thirty-nine Steps John Buchan

Richard Hannay is a Scottish exile who leads a normal life in London. But when Franklin P. Scudder, an American spy, comes to him bearing the news of an assassination attempt and the German's plans to steal British military secrets before launching World War I, Hannay finds his peaceful existence shattered and his life threatened by an organized group of spies. Can Hannay manage to survive and thwart the German's plans or will death meet him first?
